Dear Dr. Richter and the Surgi-Care Staff,

I am writing to thank you sincerely for all of the time and effort that you spent working on my mare DJ. As I am thanking you for the amazing things you accomplished with her; I also need to thank you for knowing exactly how to deal with and what to say to a grieving family as we all picked your brain with every step you took.

It has been a few months now and I also wanted to update you on how she and I both were doing. After returning home we followed the strict schedule of medicine and exercise, as we tried to keep our heads above water and (Nothing against DJ again. Just One step at a time returned just as Well, not long we were back on a and were gaining As well as eating properly anything and everything we put in stay far away from the vet as possible. you guys we love you). I began slowly riding light work to see how she would handle it. it all came back. The precision and speed you guaranteed. after the slow work work out schedule weight and muscle, and digesting front of her!

Back on the show circuit, She was being herself. The first show we entered showed a lot of consistency and stability. In which I was very satisfied. The second show was just that much better! We even won a little pocket cash. By the time the third show came around we knew exactly what we had to do, and sure enough first place and the taste of achievement had never felt so amazing. I cried, mom and dad cried, and people that knew our story cried with us. We were amazed and ecstatic. We owe it all to you!

The staff at Surgi-Care did a truly amazing job. Under a ton of pressure by a young girl whose life was in their hands. I am so very thankful and hope that one day too I can help and revive someone's dreams just as you have helped and kept mine alive. Dr. Richter you are truly amazing. I hope that one day I will follow in your foot steps and be able to do for someone what you did for me, my family and my horse.

Thank you all so very much!

Megan Calhoun, DJ, and Family

I'm sure you can tell she's loved very much!
